I can refer to parts of the scripture to support my ideas	✓	✓

Before God forgives us, we have to show that we are truly sorry and realise what we have done wrong and then God will always forgive us, no matter what we do. I know this because in Matthew 18:21-22, Jesus says "forgive them, not seven times, but seventy seven times." ✓✓

To be forgiving you have to realise that the person that you're cross at is sorry and you have to let go of all your feelings and open your heart to the other person. It may be hard to do this, and that's perfectly normal but you can't hold a grudge forever or else the hatred will eat you up and make you feel even more mad. If you forgive, it will make you feel better, I know this because in Luke 23-34 Jesus said "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing." ✓

God and Jesus will love us no matter what we do and how much we sin as long as we are truly sorry. | Super because
